Workshop on Right to Information Act: A Report

A Joint collaboration between the Mahatma Fule Arts, Commerce & Sitaramji Chaudhari Science College Warud and Dr. Shamaprasad Mukharjee Arts College ,Shendurjana-Ghat

Department of Library

Activity Report of MOU ( 2019-20

Name of Activity/ Event: - Regional Workshop on "Right To Information Act-2005"

Activity/Event Venue: Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Auditorium Hall, Mahatma Fule Arts, Commerce and Sitaramji Chaudhari Science College, Warud

Organized By : Knowledge Resource Center / Library Department.

Date: Saturday 21/12/2019

Number of Participants: 99 .

Inaugural Sessions: Dr. J. D. Wadate (Principal) welcomed the audience with his speech on why RTI is relevant today. He said that many consider democracy as the best form of governance. However, in that context, he said that there needs to be a rethinking on whether India's democracy really belongs to its people. Presently, accountability is only at the level of the legislature and Parliament. However, as past experience clearly demonstrates, it has not delivered the right result. He said that the bureaucratic system in the country must be made germ free and the disinfectant is transparency. The tool to bring about such transparency is an act like the Right to Information Act, 2005.

Nature of Participants :Teacher of Maharashtra Government offices, panchayat Samiti School, Professor, Asst. Professor ,non-teaching staff of Morshi and Warud Taluka region, Employees of Government offices Ee.g. taluka Office, Warud Nagarparishad staff, Zilha Parishad and Panchyat Samite different villages School teacher was participated in this workshop.
