2.6.2 Attainment of PO, PSO and CO

The programmes outcomes of the various programs are measured on the basis of the performance of students in different curricular and co-curricular activities. The most of the activities were conducted online because of pandemic situation. The college measures the attainment level of program outcomes of the students through some methods as follows.

1. Continuous monitoring of student during the regular practicals and handling different instruments in the laboratory.
2. Continuous internal evaluation through unit tests, assignments, seminars, and other participative learning to evaluate the subject knowledge.
3. Participation of students in sports, debate, elocution and other competitions to assess the individual and team work.
4. Evaluation of project based work of UG/PG classes
5. Involvement of students in different activities like NSS/NCC, Yuva Mohotsav, cultural activities and Dr. Panjabrao Alias Bhausahab Deshmukh Birth anniversary program and annual college gathering to assess individual and team work.
6. Involvement in different activities like tree plantation, rallies, awareness programs to evaluate students' responsibilities towards environment protection and sustainability.

Besides these evaluation processes students are evaluated continuously based on their regularity, group discussions, class interactions, participation in co-curricular activities and the overall disciplined quality of their conduct.

In addition to above parameters the attainment level of programs outcomes are measures as under.

Attainment Level 1 : 0-25 students completed their course successfully at the final semester/final year examination.

Attainment Level 2 : 26-50 students completed their course successfully at the final semester/final year examination.

Attainment Level 3 : 51-75 students completed their course successfully at the final semester/final year examination.

Attainment Level 4 : 76-100 students completed their course successfully at the final semester/final year examination.

The attainment levels of the program specific outcomes of programs offered by the institution based on the given parameters in the academic year 2021-22 are given as under.
