The various types of practices performed in the college from which everyone can get benefited. These practices are Yama and Niyama , Asana, Pranayama (control of the breathing process), Mudras and Bandhas, Shat Kriya, Dhyana (Meditation). Yama and Niyama are the fundamental practices of yoga which developed a healthy attitude towards life. Asanas are certain special patterns of postures that stabilize the body and mind. Pranayama means extension of the vital force (i.e. dimension of Prana) Pranayamas are practices that are designed to bring about voluntary control over respiration. Mudras and Bandhas are certain specific locks and holds of the semi-voluntary and involuntary muscles in the body.
