Department Of Home-Economics

Rangoli Demonstration

2022 - 23

The Home Economics department has given a demonstration of rangoli to B.A Part I students on 23rd November 2022. This has been demonstrated by the Head of Home Economics Department Prof. Dr.Mrs.N.A. Bodkhe. There are several types of rangolis that have been taught like Thipkyanchi rangoli, Design rangoli, Sanskarbharti rangoli and etc. The motto behind this demonstration was to motivate students for home decoration and to develop artistic skills in them.

Further, students of B.A. Part I had drawn rangolis as per their imagination in the home economics department Laboratory. This mainly includes 'water is life', 'save water', 'save girl child', 'prohibit the use of plastic', and 'sanskarbharti' etc. In this way, the activity of 'demonstration of rangoli' has been performed by the home economics department.
