A Workshop on

'The Communication Skills in English'

ORGANIZED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH IN COLLABORATION WITH IQAC

[From 4/4/2022 to 9/4/2022]

Introduction –

The present course consists of instructions, topics, rules, examples and exercises for English communication skills, grammar and writing. It is beyond the scope of this course to cover all aspects of language and so only those parts which are most convenient have been included here.

The students should carefully study and learn the course contents, so that it will help them to be well equipped with the skills of communicative English in such a short span of workshop.

The teachers hope that students will find the course contents useful and that they will try to improve their knowledge of English communication skill through a proper study of the course.

Course Contents -

Fixed Structures -

Course of Fixed Structures deal with basic sentence structures for spoken and written English, comprises grammatical sentence structures that are specially required to speak English.

This course contains all basic to advanced structures required for spoken and written English that will make it an English learning topic for beginners as well as advance level English learners. The grammatical structures will be useful for most of the competitive and written exams.

Figures of Speech -

A Figure of Speech is a departure from ordinary usage to produce a greater effect while speaking and writing English. The course contents of the topic will deal with most commonly used figures of speech such as Simile, Metaphor, Personification etc.

Composition -

Composition writing is creating and organizing written paper or an essay on a topic in the field of study. Composition helps writer recognize quality writing and develop their own effective writing skills. English composition is defined as the process of combining distinct parts or elements to form a whole essay, research paper, business correspondence, technical report, literary work and the manner in which these elements are combined or related. The topics include the writing process, paragraphs, sentences/grammar and punctuation. The course will mostly focus on letter writing, writing applications and how to create CV or Bio-Data

Reading of Poetry –

The topic will deal with the skill of reading and understanding of poetry. The oral reading of poetry is also an aid to fluency in the language, just like story telling. It is also a creative art which need a practice. Poetry reading is not easy art. It may not be e to understand because of the style and vocabulary, but if you work at it one can normally get and idea or a feeling of what a poet is trying to say. The topic will give some tips of basic reading of poetry along with illustrations.

Reading of Story -

Short Stories can be a good choice while learning a language because they are basically short. It is like reading and experiencing a whole book in a few pages. While reading short story you have all excitement of a story in a book, but you only have to read 5,000 to 10,000 words. So you can quite quickly finish the story and feel that you have achieved something. The course will provide tips for reading of story. It is just our endeavor to explain how you read a short story. It is also the aim of the topic that readers of the short st shall not divide carelessly into it.

Idioms and Phrases –

English is a fascinating language. It is full of expressions and well written prose can transport you to another world. One such tool that authors usually employ to make their words memorable are idioms and phrases. It is important to understand the concept and the correct usage of idioms and phrases. The course will deal with some common idioms and phrases along with their meanings so that the student should use them in sentences to bring out their meaning
